OTC Ladders offer a great way for members of all skill levels to meet other players, enjoy friendly competition, and improve their game. Players are grouped into boxes of 4-5 participants with similar playing abilities, with THREE weeks to complete matches against each opponent. Based on match results, players will move up/down/stay in their current box for the next round. Points are earned for participation as well as for winning.

Late entries will be accepted during the first week of each round IF there is space to accommodate them. Entries during the last two weeks will start in the following round.
